

Operations Management

MSCI 3000 (3 credits)

Fall Semester 2017

Professor Name: SIMONE BIGOLIN

Professor Email: simonebigolin@hotmail.com

Course Description

This course addresses the operations of organizations from a strategic and operational perspective. It introduces some of the most widely used models in management science.

It addresses topics such as operations strategy, process selection, supply chain management, operations planning and scheduling, quality management.

Course Objectives

In today's competitive environment, many organizations have been restructuring in response to global competition and the realization that maintaining customer loyalty is dependent upon operational excellence. Operations Management (OM) is about doing just that: designing internal processes and continually improving them once they are in place.

OM deals with the management of the resources required to provide the services and goods produced by an organization. These resources include: people, materials, equipment, facilities and knowledge. The operations function is central to any enterprise. OM is primarily concerned with the efficient and effective use of the resources of organizations, in recognition of the strategic importance of operational excellence as a major source of competitive strength.

Learning objectives

On successful completion of this course, you should be able to:

- Demonstrate an understanding of the strategic importance of operations management and its purpose in contemporary global business environments.
- Discuss how operations management relates to the other functions, such as marketing, financial analysis and human resource management.
- Explain the need for operations management systems: inputs, processes and outputs of a variety of businesses.
- Develop the knowledge and critical thinking skills necessary to use the concepts and strategies in order to recognize, formulate, analyze, design and manage operations and create value.
- Describe and implement the methods and tools needed to model and analyze operations issues.

Course Materials & Resources

- Textbook: “Operations Management” by Jay Heizer and Barry Render, 8th or 9th Edition, Prentice Hall.
- Course Packet: Lecture slides. Its purpose is to guide students in the lecture and facilitate taking notes. Most slides in the packet merely highlight the topics. You have to take notes in class and read the book to obtain the details. Always come to the lecture with your course packet.

Attendance Policy

Attendance at all classes and CIMBA sanctioned activities is MANDATORY. All unexcused absences will have the following consequences:

- a. 1st absence will result in a loss of a 1/3 of a letter grade in that class
- b. 2nd (cumulative) absence will result in a loss of an entire letter grade in that class
- c. 3rd (cumulative) absence will result in a dismissal from the program.

Absences due to illness require a note from the CIMBA Office Staff. If a student is sick and cannot attend class, he/she must inform the CIMBA Staff immediately. Failure to do so will result in an unexcused absence.

Grievance Policy

Student concerns regarding this course should first be discussed with me, the faculty member teaching this course. If we can't resolve the complaint, you may contact the CIMBA Director, Brandelle Unkrich (319-335-1041, brandelle-unkrich@uiowa.edu). The Director will review the details of the complaint and involve the Associate Dean of the Undergraduate Programs, as needed.

Academic Misconduct

The Tippie College of Business at the University of Iowa follows an honor code regarding academic misconduct. That code can be found at <http://tippie.uiowa.edu/honorcode.cfm> and includes cheating, plagiarism, unauthorized collaboration, obtaining an unfair advantage, forgery, facilitating academic dishonesty, and misrepresentation. Be sure you are familiar with this code. Students who exhibit academic dishonesty will receive a zero (0) for the assignment or examination involved and may receive an "F" for the class. All incidents of cheating will be reported to the CIMBA staff, as well as to the Senior Associate Dean of the Tippie College of Business. The decision of the professor may be appealed to a Judicial Board. The Honor Code for the Tippie College of Business will determine the appropriate appeal process.

Accommodating Students with Disabilities/Academic Accommodations

A student seeking academic accommodations such as a modification of seating, testing, timing, etc. should first register with Student Disability Services, then contact Shannon Lizakowski (shannon-lizakowski@uiowa.edu) in the CIMBA Office to make further arrangements. See <http://sds.studentlife.uiowa.edu> for more information.

Sexual Harassment

Sexual harassment subverts the mission of the University and threatens the well-being of students, faculty, and staff. All members of the UI community have a responsibility to uphold this mission and to contribute to a safe environment that enhances learning. Incidents of sexual harassment should be reported immediately. If you feel that you are being or have been harassed or you are not sure what constitutes sexual harassment, we encourage you to visit the University website, www.sexualharassment.uiowa.edu/index.php, and to seek assistance from the CIMBA Director, Brandelle Unkrich, at 319-335-1041 or brandelle-unkrich@uiowa.edu.
